Hello!

We are Ly and Lukas from South Dakota! we are both music teachers at the same school. Outside of our passion for music, some of our interest and passions include video games, crafting, and traveling.

We have always planned on adopting, it has always just been a matter of when. We got married three years ago, and immediately started planning on growing a family. After struggling with infertility, we made the decision to start the adoption process. We are very excited by the idea of an adoption! Everyone deserves to love their child, and we want to help facilitate this.
